Erin Pre-Conference Courses

Pre-Conference courses for Texas EMS Conference 2020 will be held November 20, 21, and 22, 2020. This years' Pre-Conference course selections offer some of our most popular classes from prior years as well as several brand-new choices.

Below is a list of available 2020 options containing class descriptions, schedules and instructor contact information. We have lots of great options, but encourage early sign-up as space is limited, and many of our most popular classes fill quickly. Early registration rates for all Pre-Conference courses are good through October 6, 2020.

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

National Association of EMS Educators Instructor Course,
Level I

Early- $610 / Regular- $675

CE: Additional, 24 hours

NAEMSE presents the EMS Instructor Course, which has been designed and developed by the same individuals who produced the DOT/NHTSA 2002 National Guidelines for Educating EMS Instructors. The NAEMSE Instructor Course represents the didactic and practical application components needed to become an EMS instructor. The content of this 40-hour course (16 hours online completed prior to arrival onsite) aligns NAEMSE developed modules with the curriculum objectives of the 2002 National Guidelines and complies with EMS rules for lead instructors in more than 40 states, including Texas. This course provides an introduction to a broad span of educational theory that is heavily reliant on brain-based learning and evidence-based best practices for all levels of experience as an EMS educator. Individuals who attend the entire course and pass the post-test receive a Certificate of Course Completion from NAEMSE and are eligible for Texas instructor certification. Continuing education hours have been applied for through NAEMSE, which is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Prehospital Continuing Education (CAPCE). For more information on class content, contact Jarred Kallmann at j.kallmann@naemse.org or 412-343-4775.
